DUBLIN CASTLE,

13th August, 1909.

SIR,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Forty-first Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed), J. B. DOUGHERTY.

The Deputy Keeper,
Public Record Office of Ireland,
Four Courts,
Dublin.

THE FORTY-FIRST REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1908 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. By an Order in Council made on the 30th May, 1908, under the provisions of Section 5 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, the Records which have been for over twenty years deposited in the offices of the Clerk of the Crown, and the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Tyrone, were placed under the charge of the Master of the Rolls. The operation of the Public Records Act has now been extended to the Records of all the counties in Ireland except those of Clare, and those of the Clerk of the Crown of Kilkenny.

2. A change in the constitution of the Board of the Merchant Taylors' School, Dublin, having led to the surrender of the building in which the Records of the ancient guild of Merchant Taylors as well as those of the guild of Merchants of the City of Dublin were preserved, the Trustees of Merchant Tailors' Endowments were pleased to deposit the Guild Records in this Office, under warrant in pursuance of Section 16 of the Public Records Act.

3. The Records of the Guild of Tailors include original Royal Charters to the Guild from the reign of Henry V., Rolls of Freemen and Apprentices from 1573, Quarterage Books from 1612, Accounts of the Masters of the Guild from 1698, Bonds on Admission from 1653, &c. Also a very interesting ancient illuminated Book of Hours and Office for the Dead, probably used in the Chantry of the Guild.

4. The Records of the Guild of Merchants include a Charter from Queen Elizabeth, Journals of the Corporation from 1438, Ordinances of the Corporation 1671, Entries of Admission of Freemen from 1601, Enrolment of Apprentices from 1733.

In addition to these important Guild Records there have already been recently presented to the Office records of the Dublin City Guilds of Carpenters, Brewers, and Smiths.

5. During the latter part of the past year the operation of the Old Age Pensions Act has thrown an amount of new work on this Office, which has interrupted all the regular duties of the department which could admit of postponement. As the public registration of Births in Ireland commenced only in 1864, no official source exists here from which evidence of birth can be furnished in the cases of persons 70 years old. The Registers of Baptisms of most of the Parish Churches of the former Established Church are in this office under the Public Records (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1875. But the registration of Baptisms in other churches 70 years ago, in country districts, seem to be very defective. In the cases of the great majority of claimants no documentary evidence of age would have been forthcoming, but for the preservation of the Returns of the Census taken in the years 1821, 1841, and 1851, deposited in this Office, which contain the statement of the then ages of the children who are the old people of the present day. These Returns are very largely availed of as evidence of age by the claimants for pensions.

6. To aid searches for age, a list of the Parish Registers of the former Established Church in Ireland now deposited in this Office (omitting parishes or churches whose books commence after 1850) is printed as an Appendix to this Report. A detailed list of these Registers appears as an Appendix to the 28th Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Records in Ireland.

Appendix II. is a list of Parishes in which known defects in the now existing Parish Registers may be, at least in part, supplied by Parochial Returns of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials which were made annually to the Bishops' Visitations, and are now preserved in this Office. These Returns are also in very many cases defective.

7. From September to the end of the year 1908 a very large number of applications, both personal and by letter, for evidence of age, from Parish Registers and Census Returns, were received and dealt with. A number of hands had also to be employed in attendance on the officers of the Inland Revenue Department, who were engaged checking from the Records statements made by applicants. Although the Treasury authorised the temporary employment of a number of additional hands for the Pensions work, it has yet been necessary to devote to it all available time of every official in this Office. It has consequently become necessary to suspend temporarily most of the regular work of the Department. This interruption has involved the postponement of the reception of accruing Records, and the work of arranging, cataloguing, indexing, and calendaring of the Records. It has also, I regret to say, become necessary to curtail very much, for the time, the privileges ordinarily accorded to literary readers.

8. Among some old Law Books presented to the Library of this Office by the Secretary to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, was found a well written old ms. copy of the greater part of the first volume of King and Harris's ms. "Collectanea de Rebus Hibernicis," now in the National Library of Ireland. This copy contains 496 folio pages, and includes the entries extending from the reign of Henry II. to 1290.

48. Orders for the Retention of Records in local custody under 39 and 40 Vic., c. 58 have been made in the cases of Inver (diocese of Raphoe), Kilmore (diocese of Kilmore), and Tamlaght (diocese of Armagh). In the case of Kilmeen, diocese of Cork, for which a Retention Order was already in force, 3 volumes, temporarily deposited pending the erection of a new safe, were returned to the Parish.

49. Parish Registers of Carrickmacross, Kiltoghart (two volumes), Seapatrik (two volumes), in local custody under Retention Orders, were re-bound in this Office during the year.

50. In cases of five parishes information was received during the year which indicated the loss of old parish registers. In every case the books were found, on representation being made to the clergyman from this Office. How insecure old registers in local custody have been may be further illustrated by the second Appendix to this Report. It contains a list of parishes in which the Returns of Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths, made annually to the Bishops' Visitation, supply entries of dates wanting in the Registers now forthcoming. Unfortunately, in most cases these Parochial Returns are even more defective than the Registers. Still they preserve many facts, and are also evidence that many registers existed which are now lost to their lawful custodians. It may be hoped that this list may be of service in calling the attention of persons in whose possession the original registers may now be, and may lead them to restore the books, or what may remain of them, to the public.

51. A useful work is being done by the Parish Register Society of Dublin, with aid from this Office, in the publication of Parish Registers for the benefit of genealogical research. The Registers of S. Patrick, S. John, S. Catherine, and S. Michan, Dublin, and Monkstown, Co. Dublin, and a Register of Commonwealth Marriages at Cashel have been printed by this Society. The Huguenot Society also issued during the year the Registers of the French Church at Portarlington.

State Paper Office.

52. The Government Papers received during the year 1908 comprised the Chief Secretary's Office registered papers for 1895, and Registers and Index for 1896. The papers have been checked and put up in cartons Nos. 4207 to 4251.

53. The various rooms and offices have been painted and papered throughout.

54. The Searches made for Government Departments during the year numbered 547.

55. The Calendar of Official Papers, 1790-1831, has been carried on from carton 377 to 406, and from 452 to 456. A card Index to this Calendar has been commenced and carried on to p. 221.

56. In continuation of the General Catalogue of the contents the Tower, 812 books and bundles were examined, re-arranged, and supplied with shelf references. The Catalogue now is nearly complete.

57. The pressure of the work arising from Old Age Pensions claims during the last months of the year much interrupted the progress of work in the State Paper Office also, it being necessary to detach the Clerk in charge whenever possible from his proper duties to aid the Record Office.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency as my Report.

Dated at the Public Record Office, Dublin, this tenth day of August, 1909.

JAMES MILLS,
*Deputy Keeper of the Records and Keeper
of the State Papers in Ireland.*

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Records, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

R. E. MEREDITH,
M.R.

THE FORTY-SECOND REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN.

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1908 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. During the year 1909, the exceptional work thrown on this Office as a result of the Old Age Pensions Act (par. 5 and 7 of 41st Report) has continued with very little abatement. In addition to a large number of claimants who applied personally for evidence of their age, 26,700 searches were made for applicants who made application through the post; and in most cases evidence of age was found and furnished to the persons interested.

2. In addition to the assistance thus given directly to the public, a number of Revenue Officers, about 20 on the average, were engaged throughout the year in making searches to aid the Pension Officers in verifying the ages of claimants for pensions. These officers, assisted by part of the Office searching staff, reinforced by temporary assistants whose employment was authorised by the Lords of the Treasury, made during the year over 150,000 searches.

3. To deal with the permanent increase in the work of the Office, the Treasury has sanctioned the increase of the Office staff by three Supplementary Clerks, four Searchers, and one Boy Learner. One of the Searchers and the boy are intended to increase the hands available for the work of Bookbinding and Repairing of Records.

19. One hundred and eighty-three certificates were granted for inspection of Records for literary purposes. Under these, 3,161 volumes, records or files were produced for literary readers during the year.

Arrangement and Preservation of Records.

20. During the latter part of the year work was recommenced on the rearrangement of the Equity Exchequer Pleadings. The Bills 1 January, 1687, to 30 May, 1694, and the Answers 1 January, 1687, to 4 May, 1701, were checked, stamped, arranged and parcelled. In all 115 parcels.

21. The Bookbinding Department had to be closed during most of the year. 12 volumes of Records were bound, 6 Patent Rolls, 8 Original Wills, and considerable number of Returns of the Census of 1841 and 1851 were repaired.

Indexing and Calendaring.

22. Work under this head was, owing to the pressure of current business, almost completely discontinued during 1909. A section of the Catalogue of Accounts appearing on the Pipe Rolls, carrying it to the end of the reign of Edward II., prepared in previous years, is printed as Appendix I. to this Report.

23. The series of "Catholic Qualification Rolls" having been found not readily available for reference, have been re-arranged by Mr. Thomas Morrissey, whose report on this collection is printed as Appendix II. These rolls contain the signatures of Roman Catholics appointed to office or admitted to the Franchise under the Acts 17 and 18 Geo. III. c. 49 (Irish), 33 Geo. III. c. 21 (Irish) and 10 Geo. IV. c. 7.

Proceedings under Parochial Records Acts.

24. The Registers of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials of five parishes became attachable under 38 and 39 Vic. c. 59 by death or resignation of incumbents who had been in office in 1870; and warrants were signed for their transfer to this Office. One book of another parish discovered since the removal of its records has also been transferred.

25. The Records of the following parishes have been received during the year :—

Parish.	County.	Vols.	Baptisms.	Marriages.	Burials.
Achonry. .	Sligo, .	2	1825-1909	1825-44	1827-1909
Moydow, .	Longford, .	1	1794-1819	1796-1820	1795-1818

26. Two volumes of the Parish Registers of Tomregan, in local custody under Retention Order, were rebound in this Office during the year.

STATE PAPER OFFICE.

27. The Government Papers and Books received during 1909 were of unusual bulk and variety. They consisted of:—

Irish Office Letter Portfolios, 1801-1854.

Chief Secretary's Office, Registered Papers of 1899, 85 boxes.

Also the Register and Index for 1897.

Chief Secretary's Office, Letter Books, 1888-1897, 48 volumes.

Police and Crime Branch. Papers anterior to 1891.

Convict Papers, 1901-3, 30 bundles and boxes.

Council Office Registered Papers 1897-1901, 39 boxes.

Parliamentary Papers 1895-1901, 13 boxes.

28. The Registered Papers have been checked and put up in Cartons 4252 to 4379.

29. The searches made for Government Departments during the year numbered 531.

30. The General Catalogue of the contents of the Tower, a work involving much labour, which was commenced in 1906, has been completed. Every parcel has now been examined and assigned a shelf reference which is registered in the Catalogue, so that each book and parcel deposited in the Tower can at once be produced.

31. The work on the Calendar of the older Official Papers had during the year to be suspended, as all available time of Mr. Chart, the officer in charge in the Tower, was occupied in aid of the extra work in the Record Office caused by the demands arising under the Old Age Pensions Act.

32. Your Excellency was pleased to make certain alterations in the Regulations governing the admission of Literary Readers to the older State Papers. The Regulations as amended appear as Appendix III. to this Report.

All which is humbly submitted to your Excellency as my Report.

Dated at the Public Record Office, Dublin, this 9th day
November, 1910.

JAMES MILLS,

*Deputy Keeper of the Records and Keeper
of the State Papers in Ireland.*

I humbly certify to your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Records, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

APPENDIX II.

CATHOLIC QUALIFICATION ROLLS.

The "Catholic Qualification Rolls" were so called because they contained the names of those Catholics who took certain oaths prescribed by law in order to the enjoyment of various rights, offices, and privileges.

The Statute 13 and 14, Geo. III., Ir., c. 35 (entitled "An Act to enable his Majesty's subjects of whatever persuasion to testify their allegiance to him") enacted that from and after the 1st June, 1774, any Catholic might take and subscribe the oath and declaration set out in the Act. This oath might be taken before the Judges of the King's Bench, or before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in the county, city, or town where such Catholic resided, and lists of the persons so taking and subscribing the oath were to be sent every year within twenty-one days after the 1st December to the Clerk of the Privy Council. There is a bundle of those lists amongst the records of the Privy Council Office (4Q.195.16). There is also in the same collection a book described as the Test book, 1775-6, in which the lists were entered up (1E.15.93). This book contains just over fifteen hundred names (practically all of residents in Leinster and Munster), so that the Act would not seem to have been generally availed of.

About four years later an Act "for the relief of his Majesty's subjects of this kingdom professing the popish religion" was passed, which relieved Catholics from restrictions on the enjoyment and disposition of landed property imposed by earlier statutes (17 and 18 Geo. III., c. 49, Ir.). No one was to benefit by this Act unless he had previously taken and subscribed the oath prescribed by the Act of 13 and 14 Geo. III., either in some one of the Four Courts, Dublin, or at the Quarter Sessions of the peace for the County of Dublin, or before the going Judge of Assize in open Court (Section III.). Section IV. provided that the rolls of names of those who subscribed the oath should be sent every year to be deposited in the Rolls Office. It was from that custody that the collection of rolls under notice was transmitted to this Office shortly after its foundation. The rolls for the Courts of Chancery, King's Bench and Common Pleas are preserved, but there do not seem to be any extant for the Court of Exchequer, if indeed any such ever existed. There are also rolls for the Leinster, the North East and the North West circuits, as well as for the Kilmainham (Co. Dublin) Quarter Sessions. The rolls for the Munster and Connaught circuits are to be found arranged under the respective counties to which they relate.

This arrangement by counties became general after 1793, when a further Act (33 Geo. III., c. 21, Ir.) was passed "for the relief of his Majesty's Popish or Roman Catholic subjects of Ireland." By this measure Catholics obtained inter alia the right to vote at Parliamentary elections, and it was enacted by Section VII. that all persons, before deriving any benefit under the Act, should take and subscribe not only the oath prescribed by 13 and 14 Geo. III., c. 35, but also another oath and declaration which is given in this Act. These oaths might be taken as well in any of the Four Courts or at Assizes, as also at the General Sessions of the peace for any county, city or borough where the party resided. The rolls, as before, were to be sent every year to the Rolls Office, there to remain of record. For several years after the passing of this Act the series is complete for practically all the counties; the rolls supplying the place to some extent of the registers of voters of modern days (vide 51 Geo. III., c. 77). This was the period when the Catholic forty shilling freeholders became such a powerful factor in political life; these rolls show in what numbers they were admitted to the franchise.

The Catholic Emancipation Act of 1829 (10 Geo. IV. c. 7), substituted for the oaths before prescribed, a single oath to be taken by Catholics on becoming Members of Parliament, being admitted to various offices, voting at Parliamentary elections, &c., but did not expressly direct the rolls to be forwarded to the Rolls Office. As a consequence apparently the rolls after that date are preserved, in the case of a large number of counties, with the collections of the Clerks of the Peace.

After 1840 the rolls are few in number, and some twenty years later the legislature abolished this special oath for Catholics. A series of statutes—particularly the Parliamentary Oaths Act, 1866, the Office and Oath Act, 1867, and the Promissory Oaths Act, 1868—simplified the law on the subject, and appointed short forms of oaths to be taken by all persons, irrespective of religion, on the various occasions indicated, such as taking one's seat as Member of Parliament, assuming Judicial or other office, &c.

Appended is a list showing the rolls sent here from the Rolls Office. As mentioned already, other rolls are as a rule to be found with the Clerk of the Peace collections for the different counties.

THE FORTY-THIRD REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN.

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1910 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. The necessity of assisting the public, and the Revenue and Local Government Departments, in the task of ascertaining and checking the ages of Old Age Pensions Claimants continues to interfere to a very great extent with the legitimate work of this office. Nearly 60,000 searches were made during the year for the Inland Revenue, and about 23,000 directly for, or on behalf of, claimants for pensions. From the end of March the staff of Inland Revenue Officers engaged on this work here was withdrawn, and their duties were added to those already discharged by the officials of this office.

2. To meet these extra duties the Lords of the Treasury, at your Excellency's instance, have authorised the appointment of three additional Supplementary Clerks on the staff of this office, and the temporary employment of other clerks and workmen. These temporary hands will be gradually reduced as the necessity for relying on this office for evidence of age diminishes.

3. With your Excellency's approval and the sanction of the Lords of the Treasury, it is arranged that as the pressure of Old Age Pensions work diminishes the Supplementary Clerks now appointed to the staff shall be employed to relieve some of the Upper Division Clerks from routine duties hitherto devolving on them. In this way some of these officers will after a time be available for employment on the Calendaring of Records and other archival work, as contemplated at the erection of this office.

4. It should be observed that the staff originally fixed for this office was intended to be sufficient to secure not alone due attention to the current business of the office, but also to provide a distinct section, "whose sole duty it should be to compile Calendars to the Records." The initial task of collecting and arranging the Records from the various former repositories, the rapid growth in the public business of the office, and the extension of the advantages of this office to various classes of Records not included in the original Records Act, together with reductions more than once made in the numbers of the original staff, have made the realisation of a calendaring department, as originally designed, impossible. Such calendaring work as has been done here has for the most part been accomplished in intervals snatched from other duties. It may now, however, be hoped that after a time it will be possible definitely to allot two or three of the staff to this work, one of the primary objects in the establishment of the office.

5. The surviving volumes of the Civil Survey (33rd Report, par. 3) have been finally deposited here by the Commissioners of Woods and Forests, certified copies prepared in this office having been furnished to the Commissioners for use in the Land Revenue Office in Dublin. These volumes thus made available to the public through the enlightened generosity of the Commissioners and their Dublin representative, Mr. J. Harper Scaife, form a very valuable addition to the records of the Land Settlement under the Commonwealth. They are of great value for topography, the surveys of some counties being particularly rich in local boundary names now often obsolete. The set contains 79 barony volumes, and includes the counties of Donegal, Dublin, Kildare, Limerick, Londonderry, Meath, Tipperary, Tyrone, Waterford and Wexford. The books formerly were part of the Headfort Collection, a report on which is printed in the 2nd Volume of the Reports of the Irish Record Commissioners, pp. 21-4. This survey was undertaken for at least 15 other counties in Ireland. The remainder of the Survey, it is to be feared, perished in the fire which did so much injury to the Records of the Surveyor General's Office (in Essex Street) in 1711. That this was the case with the Kerry portion at least can hardly be doubted from the evidence afforded by the official copy of the Survey of Clanmaurice barony, presented to this office by Mr. W. T. J. Gun (38th Report, par. 2). This copy is signed by the then Deputy Surveyor General, about 1700, among whose records the original must at that time have been preserved.

6. Mr. Henry Seymour Guinness, who on more than one previous occasion presented records of some of the Dublin City Guilds, the scattered remnants of which he has endeavoured to trace and preserve, has again generously deposited in this office the complete Records of the Feltmakers' Guild of that city from their commencement in 1667. They include registers not only of the members of the guild, but also of their journeymen and apprentices.

7. His Grace the Duke of Leinster, through Lord Frederick Fitzgerald, has been so good as to present to this Office a book found among the muniments in his Estate Office, but which would appear properly to be a record of the Forfeiture Office. It was prepared towards the end of the 17th century, and is entitled "The Rent Roll of ye Estate called the Duke of Yorkes in Ireland as ye same is abstracted out of ye Leases and Contracts made by those who sett ye same."

8. Mr. Edward J. French has most kindly deposited a parcel of 13 deeds belonging to the sixteenth century, chiefly relating to the neighbourhood of Callan, Co. Kilkenny. A list of these deeds is given in the Appendix.

9. At a sale of manuscripts of the late Sir Thomas Phillipps some volumes were offered for sale which would seem to have been at one time public records. One of these was, by authority of the Lords of the Treasury, given at your Excellency's instance, purchased for the collection in this Office. It is an Entry Book of Letters of the Lords Justices addressed to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, 1712-13.

THE FORTY-FOURTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS

IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN.

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1911 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. On your Excellency's recommendation the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury have been pleased to improve the scale of salary of the Assistant Deputy Keeper of the Records, and to create a second post of Assistant Keeper of Records, placing them on the same scale as the officers of the same class in the London Record Office. To the new office of Assistant Keeper your Excellency has been pleased, on the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, to promote Mr. M. J. MacEnery, previously senior clerk in this Office.

2. Mr. T. E. Harvey, LL.D., a Class I. clerk appointed to this Office in 1899 has been, with your Excellency's sanction, permitted to exchange with Mr. H. Thorp, B.A., a clerk of the same grade in the Inland Revenue Department, London, and Mr. Thorp has accordingly joined the staff of this Office.

3. The work in connexion with Old Age Pensions claimants still continues to occupy a large amount of attention. 44,800 references were received from the Inland Revenue and Local Government Board Departments in Scotland and Ireland. These with 23,500 outstanding at the end of 1910 make a total of 68,300 searches on official references, of which 67,000 were reported on in 1911. In addition, more than 18,000 applications made directly to this Office on behalf of the claimants themselves, were dealt with.

4. At a further sale of Manuscripts formerly in the possession of the late Sir Thomas Phillipps, held in April, 1911, several volumes properly public records were offered for sale. The Lords of the Treasury, at your Excellency's instance, sanctioned the purchase of some of these volumes for this Office. Particulars of these are given in paragraph 26. In connexion with this sale, it may be mentioned that notices were inserted in the sale catalogue in reference to some lots connected with Irish State affairs, to the effect that the originals of some of the books offered for sale had been destroyed by fire in 1711. These statements were made entirely without authority, and as regards the books to which they refer are quite unfounded.

5. A volume of original Barony Maps of the County of Dublin, prepared for the use of the Commissioners of Assessment of the County in 1658, purchased at the same sale for the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Iveagh, K.P., was most generously presented by his Lordship to this Office. The Maps are founded on the Down Survey, supplemented by the same surveyors by the addition of the non-forfeited lands omitted from that survey. These maps form, therefore, the earliest complete measured survey of the county. The maps were prepared to accompany a written Book of Survey, which was purchased for this Office at a former sale of the Phillipps Manuscripts in 1899 (See 32nd Report, par. 7). They are now, therefore, through the goodness of Lord Iveagh, again restored to their place with the papers to which they relate.

6. The Records of the ancient Guild of Shoemakers of the City of Dublin have been deposited in the Office by Mr. Thomas Bagnall, representative of the Charitable Society which preserved and administered its property after the extinction of the ancient Guild. They include lists of admissions of members and apprentices, minute books and other records of the Guild, from 1627 to 1841. (See paragraph 24.) This presentation adds another to the list of City Guilds of Dublin, whose records are now placed in the safe keeping of this Office. (See 41st Report, par. 4; 43rd Report, par. 6.)

7. The space in the Record Treasury available for incoming Records will in a few years become exhausted. It will very soon be necessary, if the present rate of receiving new records be continued, to extend the storage space for Records, by the extension of the Record Treasury, or by the provision of another building in the immediate neighbourhood of the Office. If additional space cannot soon be provided, it will be necessary to discontinue the reception of bulky collections not included in the original scope of the Records Act, such as the County Records, and the Records of the Common Law Courts under the age of twenty years.

8. The proposal made in the 33rd Report of the Records, sec 15, for the issue of a Guide to the Public Records of Ireland, has been steadily kept in view, though the pressure of public duties has prevented the work from making as much advance as I desired. Mr. Wood, who has been engaged on this work, has, however, now got the bulk of the material prepared, and I hope at an early date to submit to your Excellency a scheme for its publication. As mentioned in the 33rd Report, a prominent reason for such a Guide is the fact that many of the early Reports of the Deputy Keeper of the Records are out of print, and that a Guide might bring together in more convenient form such matter in these reports as is of permanent value. Besides the matter suitable for a Guide, the Reports out of print contain Calendars and Lists of much value for historical and genealogical students. Of these, the Calendars of Fiants, Henry VIII. to Elizabeth, and the Index to Grant Books and Wills of the Diocese of Dublin to 1800, are frequently asked for, and their reprint as Stationery Office publications would be very desirable.

OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN.

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1912 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. Mr. Henry FitzPatrick Berry, I.S.O., Litt.D., M.R.I.A., has retired from the office of Assistant Deputy Keeper of the Records in accordance with the Order in Council fixing an age limit for public service.

Dr. Berry entered this office immediately after its formation in 1868 after competitive examination. In the early days of the office he expended many years active and valuable work in the task of systematizing, cataloguing, and generally making available for research the great mass of Records, most of them ill-arranged, many until then wholly inaccessible, which was then poured into the Record Office. The fruit of this useful work here is on all sides in evidence.

In 1878 he was promoted to a senior clerkship in the Master of the Rolls Chamber, returning, however, to the Record Office as a first class clerk in 1886. In 1899, he was promoted Assistant Deputy Keeper of the Records.

When it became possible to spare some of his time for editorial work, he undertook the editing of the early Statutes, and the Acts of the Parliament of Ireland. The preparation of the Outside the Office Dr. Berry edited for the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland the "Register of Wills and Inventories of the Diocese of Dublin, 1457-1483." He has also contributed a large number of erudite articles to various historical and antiquarian journals and publications.

3. The vacant clerkship has been filled (though not until after the close of the year) by the Civil Service Commissioners nominating Mr. Walter Doolin, B.A., from the successful list of the Class I. examination of the year.

5. The Reverend W. J. MacCreery, B.D., and the Select Vestry of the Parish of S. Werburgh, Dublin, have deposited under the 16th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act a number of ancient Deeds of considerable interest which had been preserved among the parish muniments, and relate chiefly to places in that parish.

THE FORTY-SIXTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS

IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE EARL OF ABERDEEN.

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1913 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. An Order in Council made under the 5th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, has extended the operation of the Act to the Records of the Offices of Clerk of the Crown and Clerk of the Peace of the County Clare. The Act now extends to the Peace Office Records of every county in Ireland. The arrangements for the transfer of the Records from Ennis had not been completed at the end of the year.

2. With the approval of your Excellency, and the consent of the Treasury, two of the Class I. Clerks, Mr. T. J. Morrissey, LL.B., and Mr. D. A. Chart, M.A., have been authorised to undertake, outside their official time in this Department, occasional duty as Inspectors under the Commissioners for Historical Manuscripts. I am pleased to be able thus to facilitate the work of the Commission in Ireland.

3. The Lords of the Treasury have been pleased, on your Excellency's recommendation, to sanction a slight increase in the pay of the class of Searchers, Bookbinders, and Repairers, and to authorise the formation from the same class of a small sub-class in the position of sub-foremen, which tends to improve the organisation and efficiency of the class.

4. Many of the earlier Reports of the Deputy-Keeper of the Records in Ireland have long been out of print, and repeated demands have been made by the public for their reprinting. I do not consider that a simple reprint would be the most useful way of meeting the demand. The Reports contain much matter which, though eminently proper for publication at the time, as supplying information of the progress from year to year of the work for which the office was established, is not of permanent interest to the public. They include, too, many lists superseded by others printed in later reports, which therefore would be actually misleading if now presented in a new reprint.

Historical students recognise that appendixes containing Calendars or Indexes of Records are of permanent value for their work, and desire the reprinting of those from Reports out of print. They complain, too, that in the case of Calendars which have been continued through several Reports, the difficulty of referring to them is very greatly increased by this form of issue. Therefore reprints which would take the form of separate publications of particular Calendars, would not only save much useless printing, but give to the public what is needed in a much more convenient form. I therefore ventured with the approval of the Master of the Rolls, to suggest that the demand for reprinting should be acceded to in the following modified form, involving the issue of four separate Stationery Office publications.

(a). A Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland, having specially in view the embodying of the matter of such parts of the Reports of the Deputy-Keeper of the Records now out of print as are of permanent value in elucidating the nature and arrangement of the Records, but not including appendixes forming Calendars or Indexes.

(b). The List of Grants and Wills of the Diocese of Dublin to 1800, issued as an Appendix to the 22nd Report, and long out of print, to be reissued as a separate Stationery Office publication. Such re-issue to embody in the general alphabetical arrangement, the Addenda attached to the original edition, and the Corrigenda issued with the 31st Report.

(c). The Calendars of Fiants of the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., and Mary, issued with the 7th, 8th, and 9th Reports, all now out of print, to be reissued in one volume as a Stationery Office publication.

(d). The Calendar of Fiants of the reign of Elizabeth, printed with the 11th, 12th, 13th, 15th, 16th, 17th, and 18th Reports, to be printed as a Stationery Office publication. These would occupy two volumes, and the Index which appeared as part of the 23rd and 24th Reports should be reissued as a third volume, when it goes out of print.

5. Your Excellency was pleased to recommend these publications to the favourable consideration of the Treasury, and Their Lordships have since been pleased to sanction the printing of (a), (c), and (d), but on account of its much greater cost have declined to sanction (b).

BUILDINGS.

36. The accidental falling of an iron floor-plate in the Record Treasury, with happily less serious results than might have followed, led me to fear that there might be some incipient instability in the iron framework or fittings. The Commissioners of Public Works, at my request, had careful examinations made which showed that the accident arose from local causes, and that no further danger threatens.

37. Arising out of the reorganisation of the class of Searchers it has been found possible to give additional Search room space and facilities to one class of public readers.

THE FORTY-SEVENTH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE BARON WIMBORNE,
LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1914 in connection with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. Mr. James Mills, I.S.O., resigned his post of Deputy Keeper of the Records and Keeper of the State Papers in this office, from 31st May, 1914.

He had suffered from serious illness for some time, and he died on the 5th September, 1914, very much regretted.

At the competitive examination for Junior Clerkships in 1868 he obtained first place, and after various promotions he was appointed to be Deputy Keeper in succession to Dr. John J. Digges La Touche in 1899. He was associated with the office from its establishment in 1867-8, and for a few years before his retirement was the last member of the original staff.

Endowed with great ability and industry, and specially devoted to Record work and research, he soon became thoroughly familiar with the routine work of the various departmental branches of the Public Record Office and State Paper Office; he learned to read and translate the Latin and French records with facility and accuracy, and his knowledge of legal terminology and phraseology was singularly complete.

As Deputy Keeper since 1899 he administered the ordinary work of the office and planned and directed its Record publications.

A vast amount of new work was thrown on the office since 1908 by the operation of the Old Age Pensions Act. In the great majority of cases claimants could obtain no documentary evidence of age except in the Returns of the Census taken in the years 1821, 1841, and 1851. These Returns contain the entries of the ages of children who are the pensioners or claimants of the present day, and as they were very largely availed of for proof of age it became necessary to organize a special department to deal with Old Age Pensions' work, and under the direction and personal supervision of Mr. Mills, it proved most efficient in discharging very onerous and urgent work.

During the intervals of routine work he compiled Calendars of the Faints from Henry VIII. to Elizabeth, inclusive; and of the Justiciary Rolls in the reign of Edward I. for the years 1295-1307.

The Early Statutes of Ireland 1204-1472, Catalogues of the Accounts of the Pipe Rolls in the Exchequer 1227-1340, and various Reports of great value were published under his direction and accurate editorship.

Besides his archival work in the Office he edited the "Account Roll of the Priory of the Holy Trinity, Dublin, 1337-1346, with the Middle English Moral Play, the Pride of Life," for the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland; he was joint editor of the "Calendar of the Gormanston Register" for the same Society; and he contributed several valuable papers to various learned societies.

He was always kind and courteous to his staff and appeared to regard it rather as a pleasure than a task to assist them over difficulties which his intimate knowledge of the Records rendered easy of solution to him.

2. His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, on the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, was pleased to appoint me, previously the Assistant Deputy Keeper in the Office, to be Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in succession to Mr. Mills; Mr. Herbert Wood, B.A., previously the Assistant Keeper, to be Assistant Deputy Keeper; and Mr. James F. Morrissey, B.A., previously the Senior Clerk, to be Assistant Keeper.

3. Mr. G. S. Robertson was assigned by the Civil Service Commissioners to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Morrissey. Before his appointment was completed he received a temporary commission in the Army to last until the end of the present war.

Mr. James O. Nicolson, Workman Searcher in this Office, a private in the Reserve of the Irish Guards, was called up for active service, and has been promoted to the rank of Acting-Sergeant.

5. Other members of the staff, with the consent of the Master of the Rolls, joined His Majesty's Forces for the period of the War; viz., Mr. Harold Thorp, a Class I. clerk, enlisted in the Royal Army Medical Corps; and Mr. James L. J. Hughes, a Supplementary clerk, enlisted in the South Irish Horse, and subsequently obtained a temporary commission.

6. The places of these absent members will be kept open for them until the termination of their military service. The absence of four members of the staff seriously cripples the working of the office.

7. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury during the year 1914 sanctioned the issue as a Stationery Office publication of a "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland."

They also sanctioned the reprinting of the "Calendars of Fians of the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., Philip and Mary, and Elizabeth," as detailed in the Forty-sixth Report of the Deputy Keeper, paragraphs 4 and 5, where the present Report is anticipated.

8. Births were not registered in Ireland until the year 1864; while the series of Baptismal Registers in this Department is very defective, and only contains entries of the baptisms of members of the late established Protestant Church of Ireland. For these reasons the Census Returns of 1851 have been useful in the extreme in furnishing proof of age.

Much trouble has been caused in making numerous searches for applicants for Old Age Pensions who asserted that their parents resided in Dublin on the night this Census was taken, but whose statements in this respect turned out to be incorrect. It was not possible before commencing the searches to check these statements by the Dublin Directory for 1851 for the following reasons:—

(a) Names of Heads of Families in very many instances are not given in this Directory in cases of tenement houses, cottages, courts, etc.

(b) Many families changed address between December, 1850, when the particulars were furnished for the Directory, and 30th March, 1851, when the Census was taken, and

(c) There are mistakes in the names of Heads of Families in the Directory.

A Catalogue of Families residing in Dublin on the night the Census was taken has now been compiled from the Census Records. It runs in the same form as the Directory; and it will be used henceforth to check the statements of applicants and to locate families then living in Dublin, of whose address there is no certain knowledge.

This catalogue has been prepared by Mr. D. A. Chart; it will save the Dublin Census Returns from much unnecessary wear, and will be extremely useful to genealogists, claimants for Old Age Pensions, etc.

9. The facilities offered to the Historical Manuscripts Commission have been availed of by them. A large collection of original Deeds belonging to the Marquis of Ormonde was deposited here for the purpose of being calendared by Dr. H. F. Berry. They commence with the Anglo-Norman Conquest, and are of great historical value to students of Irish topography and family history.

10. It is again necessary to call attention to the urgent necessity of providing additional storage space for the incoming Records, either by the extension of the Record Treasury or by securing another building in the immediate neighbourhood of the Office. All the available space will become exhausted in a very few years, and then it will not be possible to receive any further Records until additional space shall be provided. (See Forty-Fourth Report, paragraph 7.)

THE FORTY-EIGHTH REPORT

OF THE

DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS

AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS

IN IRELAND.

TO THEIR EXCELLENCIES THE LORDS JUSTICES
AND GENERAL GOVERNORS OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCIES,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1915 in connexion with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. The work of this Department continues to be seriously affected by the war. Several members of the Staff, with the consent of the Master of the Rolls, joined his Majesty's Forces until the termination of the war, and the places of absent members will be kept open for them until they retire from such military service.

Others applied for permission to enlist, but they could not be spared as their absence would cripple the resources of the Office.

2. Out of seven Class I. clerks, two joined His Majesty's Forces: Mr. Harold Thorp enlisted in the Royal Army Medical Corps and Mr. G. S. Robertson in the Royal Scots Regiment. Out of seven Supplementary clerks, Mr. James L. J. Hughes obtained a temporary commission in the Cheshire Regiment and Mr. M. F. Duggan joined the Royal Dublin Fusiliers. Mr. James O. Nicolson, a workman searcher, served with the Irish Guards and was promoted to be Acting-Sergeant.

3. Mr. Nicolson was wounded at Richebourg-l'Avoue on 18th May, 1915: on his recovery he rejoined his Regiment without delay.

4. I regret to have to report the death of Mr. G. S. Robertson: he was killed in France on 29th September, 1915. He was born in the year 1892, and graduated at Exeter College, Oxford, in 1914. After the competitive examination for Class I. Clerkships in 1914 he was assigned to fill a vacant post in this office, but he obtained a temporary commission in the Army before he could take up his duties here, and subsequently he was promoted to be a temporary captain. This Department has lost an officer of promise and his early death at the age of twenty-three years is much to be regretted.

5. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury authorised an expenditure not to exceed 50*l.* in the purchase for the office library of certain scarce and valuable books and maps belonging to the late Deputy Keeper which were to be sold by public auction in January, 1915. (Treasury Letter 1877/15.)

The sum of 29*l.* 12*s.* 9*d.* was expended and some useful books of reference and maps were secured, but it was not considered prudent to make further purchases owing to the unusually high prices realised by most of the books relating to Ireland.

6. The Sydney Manuscripts, sold at Frognal, and the Macartney Manuscripts, sold at London, contained Maps and Irish State Papers which throw valuable light on Irish History in the periods 1768-78 and 1782-9.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury requested the Trustees of the British Museum to cause them to be inspected and purchased at a reasonable price for this Office. At the sales private bidders raised the prices of the lots containing these records far beyond what was reasonable and it is much to be regretted that they could not be secured for this Department. It should be noted, however, that everything possible was done by the Treasury and the British Museum.

7. Mr. M. J. Byrne, solicitor, Listowel, offered to this Office a volume containing sixty-four Kerry maps made in the year 1697, on condition that he should be furnished with official copies of the maps without payment of any Fees. Treasury sanction was given to accept his proposal and to remit Fees amounting to 50*l.* The maps were received here under the sixteenth section of the Act, 30 and 31 Vic., c. 70, and are a valuable addition to the Kerry maps already deposited here.

8. Mr. Martin J. Blake, B.L., deposited here, under the same section, the "Blake Family Records" extending from the year 1315 to 1699.

This collection illustrates the very interesting history of a well known Galway family, and throws many side-lights on the history of Galway, Athenry, various Religious Houses and several representative families.

Mr. Blake published a Calendar of the "Blake Family Records," in two volumes, which he had already presented to the Office Library.

9. The checking and arrangement of various increments of Records accruing during the last five years were delayed owing to pressure caused by the demands of Old Age Pensions' work, vacancies in the Staff, and the absence of officers who joined the Forces of the Crown during the present war. This work has now been completed and the Records specified in paragraphs 31-4 have been checked and arranged.

10. The collection of Records of the diocese of Armagh, received from the Land Commission, has been very thoroughly examined and re-arranged.

REPORT 3
APPENDIX—LIST OF RECORDS LOST IN APRIL, 1916	... 15

11.3.11-11.3.11

THE FORTY-NINTH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE BARON WIMBORNE,
LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1916 in connection with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. The work of this Department continues to be seriously affected by the continuation of the War. Several members of the Staff joined His Majesty's Forces, as stated in the Forty-eighth Report, paragraphs 1 and 2. The survivors are still serving, and I am happy to report that they suffered no casualty during the year 1916.

2. Mr. Harold Thorp, a Class I. clerk, who had enlisted in the Royal Army Medical Corps, was specially mentioned for his distinguished service.

3. Mr. M. J. Byrne, solicitor, Listowel, who had deposited here a volume containing sixty-four Kerry maps made in the year 1697, was furnished, under Treasury sanction, with official copies of these maps without payment of any fees.

4. This Office was occupied by the Sinn Féiners during the Dublin Rebellion, 24th—30th April. The furniture, library books and Records were used to barricade the office windows and some of the gates in the courtyards.

5. The Military recovered possession on Sunday, the 30th April. I inspected the Office and courtyards on the following day, and got special permission from the Garrison Adjutant, Dublin Castle, to bring in the Staff to replace the Records, books and furniture that had been removed. The furniture and windows had suffered considerable damage, and the bindings of several books belonging to the office library had been injured; but the Records had suffered very little damage, and the loss to them was practically nil.

6. The Staff began to assemble on the 2nd May, and came here in constantly increasing numbers on the following days: everything was restored to its place in three days. This was extremely fortunate, as it rained heavily for several days, commencing on the 5th May, and books or documents not protected from the storm would have been badly injured.

I am very pleased to testify to the efficient and untiring zeal of every member of the Staff in this trying emergency.

7. The Office was open to the public on and after the 4th May, and although there was some discomfort until the completion of the necessary repairs, work went on without a single hitch.

8. A thorough examination was made of the Records, and it was very gratifying to find that the entire absolute loss was represented by the Will of a soldier. A few other documents were found missing, but it was possible to procure substitutes for them, and in these cases there was no absolute loss. A detailed list of these Records is printed as an Appendix to this Report.

9. The issue of a "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland," and the reprinting of the "Calendars of Fiants of the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., Philip and Mary, and Elizabeth" have been delayed owing to the absence of the members of the Staff serving with His Majesty's Forces, and also by the Dublin fire of April, 1916, which destroyed the premises of the Government Printers. The completion of these Publications will be hurried on as fast as the stringent circumstances of the times will permit.

ARRANGEMENT AND PRESERVATION OF RECORDS.

30. The collection of Records of the diocese of Dublin, received from the Land Commission, has been thoroughly examined and re-arranged.

31. Chancery Replications and Rejoinders are being separated, made into files, re-labelled with parchment labels, and stamped. Of these, 26 bundles containing 171 files have been dealt with.

32. Lodgment and Payment Schedules, 1893-4, from the Office of the Accountant-General, have been checked, arranged, parcelled and labelled.

33. Exchequer Pleadings (Equity), exclusive of Bills and Answers, 1643-1825, have been arranged into years.

Considerable trouble has been taken to identify a collection of fragments of Equity-Exchequer Pleadings, 1670-1750. Some of these fragments have been restored to their proper series; others have been attached to the defective Records from which they had been torn, and in many cases it has thus been possible to complete defective Records.

34. The Wills and Papers leading to Grants of Probate and Administration, 1894, have been checked, stamped, and arranged in dictionary order.

35. Contentious Papers for portion of the year 1894 have been checked, flattened, stamped and arranged in dictionary order; and collections of these papers for several years, which had not been restored to their proper series, have now been interpolated; and Affidavits of Scripts, 1858-70, have been wrapped in brown paper and re-labelled.

36. The flattening and classifying of a small remnant of a former transfer from the office of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace, co. Kerry, have been commenced.

37. The Records in Bay 1A have been completely re-labelled. Portions of the Records in six other Bays have been re-labelled.

38. Twenty-eight bundles of Patents for Inventions have been stamped.

39. Two Chancery Bills, 4 Chancery Fiants, 48 leaves of the Chancery Bill Book for 1691-1715, 2 Exchequer Bills, 5 Exchequer Answers, 2,282 Census Returns, 200 leaves of the Register of the parish of Dromore, and 38 leaves of the parish of Ballyeaston have been repaired. Three Ordnance Maps have been mounted on linen and repaired; and Rocque's Map of the City and Suburbs of Dublin, 1756, has been repaired, mounted on linen, and framed.

40. Four volumes of Parish Registers have been re-bound; 36 volumes of miscellaneous Records and 27 volumes of the Census of 1851 have been bound; of the same Census 76 volumes have been partially bound, and 43 volumes have been checked and made ready for binding.

INDEXING AND CALENDARING.

41. All the material for the "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland" has been collected, with the exception of the portion dealing with the various collections of Diocesan Records, which are now being arranged: the work is, therefore, practically ready for printing.

42. A Calendar to the Exchequer Memorandum Roll, a.r.j. Hen. IV., by Mr. Chart, has been completed.

43. A Calendar has been prepared by Mr. J. F. Morrissey, Assistant Keeper, to portion of the Justiciary Roll (Placita), a.r.vj. & vij., Ed. II.

44. New Indexes to the collection of the Crown Office, King's Bench, and to the Crown and Peace Office collection, co. Clare, have been finished and engrossed.

45. A new copy of the Detailed Index to the Census Returns for the years 1821-51 has been completed.

46. A Draft Index to the portions of Master Murphy's leases, which have been discovered, has been completed: Indexes to 20 Chancery Order Books have been checked.

47. Progress has been made towards making the Consolidated Index to the Calendars of Wills, Grants of Probates, Administrations, etc., for the years 1878-97. The names of the deceased, with the Registries and dates, have been extracted from the Calendars for 1885-90, inclusive, and from portions of the Calendars for 1891-3.

PRINTING OF CALENDARS, INDEXES AND RECORDS.

48. Previous to the rebellion of Easter, 1916, a portion of the "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland" had been set up in type to the extent of twenty-two galleys: this type was destroyed in the fire which consumed the premises of the Government Printers. The portion of the manuscript dealing with the Records of the Plea side of the King's Bench and of the Common Pleas was destroyed at the same time, and it became necessary to re-write it. There was no difficulty in providing the Printers with duplicates of the first twenty-two galleys, and fourteen of these have now been re-set, but further printing has been delayed at the request of the Stationery Office, on account of circumstances connected with the War.

49. Similarly, 209 pages of a reprint of the "Calendar of the Faints of the reign of Queen Elizabeth" had been set up in type; this type was destroyed, and the further printing of the work has also been delayed.

52. A new safe having been provided in the Parish of Donaghendry, the Registers were permitted to remain in local custody under the existing Order.

CHIEF SECRETARY'S OFFICE,

DUBLIN CASTLE,

29th July, 1918.

SIR,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Fiftieth Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records and Keeper of the State Papers in Ireland.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed), J. J. TAYLOR.

The Deputy Keeper,
Public Record Office of Ireland,
Four Courts, Dublin.

THE FIFTIETH REPORT
OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS
AND KEEPER OF THE STATE PAPERS
IN IRELAND.

TO FIELD MARSHAL THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
VISCOUNT FRENCH,
LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

I respectfully beg to submit my Report, under the direction of the Right Honourable the Master of the Rolls, and pursuant to the 24th section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, on the proceedings had during the year 1917 in connection with the Public Records of Ireland.

1. The work of this Department continues to be adversely affected by the continuation of the War. The difficulties in the way of printing and bookbinding are almost insuperable; and the effective strength of the Staff has been greatly reduced: some of the Officers have died of wounds received in action, others are serving with His Majesty's Forces, and it became necessary to lend an Officer to another Department, early in the year, owing to the urgent necessity there.

2. I regret to have to report the death of Mr. Harold Thorp, a Class I. clerk, who enlisted in the Royal Army Medical Corps in 1915. He received the Military Medal for "gallant conduct and fine behaviour" in 1916, and he died of his wounds while serving with the British Expeditionary Force in France on 22nd September, 1917. He was educated at Sedbergh School, Yorkshire, in the years 1895-9, where he obtained several prizes. He went thence to Wadham College, Oxford, in 1899, as an open Classical Scholar, and he obtained first class honours in the Intermediate examination (Moderations) and second class in the Degree examination (Literæ Humaniores). As a member of the Oxford Union he was exceptionally brilliant and much appreciated; he was elected Librarian, Treasurer and Secretary of this Society and he was a strong candidate for the Presidency. He entered the Inland Revenue Department by competitive examination as a Class I. clerk in 1904, and he exchanged from that Office in 1911 so that he should be engaged on more congenial work in this Department. Soon after the outbreak of the War he felt it was his absolute duty to assist the Forces of the Crown: he joined a non-combatant branch of the Army from conscientious motives and rendered constant good service until his death. He died before he had reached the age of thirty-seven years and all who knew him at School, at College, in the Civil Service, or in the Army will always remember him with feelings of friendship, respect and regret.

3. I am happy to report that no casualty occurred during the year to the other members of the Staff serving with His Majesty's Forces.

4. A Class I. Clerk was lent to the Chief Secretary's Office on 22nd February, 1917, and he has been serving there since that date. The pressure of work had become exceptionally severe in that Department, a Class I. Clerk was required and as it had become impossible to procure one by Civil Service examination or transfer from another Department it became necessary to make an appeal for help to this Office.

5. The delay in issuing the "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland" has been unavoidable. Owing to the circumstances of the time stringent regulations concerning printing became necessary and an arrangement was made with the consent of the Treasury and the Stationery Office that this Guide should be set up in type but that it should not be printed off for the present. This arrangement will prevent the work from being prejudiced by any untoward circumstances and it can be printed off without delay at the very first opportunity.

6. There was a substantial increase during the year in the applications for evidence of age in connection with claims for Old Age Pensions: the Fees on official copies increased accordingly over those for the year 1916.

ARRANGEMENT AND PRESERVATION OF RECORDS.

20. The arrangement of the ecclesiastical records received from the various Diocesan Registries has been continued. The collections of the following dioceses have been examined and arranged: namely Clogher, Derry and Raphoe, Down, Connor and Dromore, Kildare, Kilmore, Ardagh and Elphin, Meath, Ossory, Ferns and Leighlin, and Tuam, Killala and Achonry. Portions of the collections of the following dioceses have been examined and arranged: namely Cashel and Emly, Cork, Cloyne and Ross, and Waterford and Lismore.

21. These collections contain a vast amount of material which was deposited here in a very confused state and much time and labour have been expended in its arrangement. During this process Administration Bonds, Marriage Licence Bonds and Parochial Returns have been discovered: these have been interpolated in their proper series.

22. Chancery Replications and Rejoinders have been arranged to the extent of 47 files: they have been relabelled with parchment labels and stamped. Some Bills and Answers found amongst them have been extracted and interpolated in their proper series.

23. The flattening and classifying of a portion of a collection formerly transferred from the Office of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace, co. Kerry, have been continued as opportunity offered.

24. The Wills and papers leading to Grants of Probate and Administration for the year 1895 have been stamped and partially checked during the year.

25. A portion of the Wills of the diocese of Connor, and 20 bundles of Patents for Inventions have been stamped.

26. Ten Chancery Bills, 10 Chancery Fiants, 12 Administration Bonds, 1,500 Census Returns, and 124 leaves of the Vestry Book of Ballyboy Parish have been repaired.

27. Thirty-six volumes of miscellaneous Records have been bound; 31 volumes have been half bound and are waiting for materials to complete the binding. One hundred and twenty-two volumes of the Census Returns of 1851 for Dublin City have been arranged and sewn: they also are waiting for materials to complete the binding and at present are wrapped in brown paper and labelled.

INDEXING AND CALENDARING.

28. The time at the disposal of the Staff for calendaring the ancient Records or making Index Books has been very limited. The gaps in the ranks of the more junior of the Class I. clerks and the Supplementary clerks have become very serious owing to the War and it has been necessary to withdraw the more senior officers of these grades from archival work in order to satisfy the daily demands of the legal professions and the public in connection with the modern Records.

29. Work upon the preparation of a Catalogue of the Accounts on the Pipe Rolls has been continued by me to the roll a.r. xxij Ed. III.

30. Progress has been made with the Calendar of the Justiciary Roll (Placita), a.r. vj et vij Ed. II., by Mr. J. F. Morrissey, Assistant Keeper.

31. A Calendar of the Exchequer Memorandum Roll a.r. iiij Ed. II. has been commenced by Mr. Chart; he has also indexed the Calendars of the Exchequer Memorandum Rolls a.r. xxij et xxiiij Ed. I., xxrx-v Ed. I., and j Hen. IV.

32. Indexes to 5 Chancery Order Books have been checked.

33. In consequence of the re-casting of the Diocesan Collection it became necessary to make a new Detailed Index: the portions for the dioceses of Clogher and Dublin have been completed.

34. An Index of the names of the householders in Belfast in the Census Returns of 1851 has been commenced. A similar Index for Dublin City has been found exceedingly useful for Old Age Pension purposes.

35. Further progress has been made towards making the Consolidated Index to the Calendars of Wills, Grants of Probate, Administrations, etc., for the years 1878-97. The names of the deceased persons, with the Registries and dates, have been extracted from the Calendars almost to the end of 1893: the extracts for 1891-2 are not fully complete.

PRINTING OF CALENDARS, INDEXES, AND RECORDS.

36. The printing of the "Guide to the Records in the Public Record Office of Ireland" has been delayed partly at the request of the Stationery Office on account of the War, and partly through a strike by the employees of the Government Printer. It is hoped that the printing of the Guide will be completed before the end of the year 1918.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER PAROCHIAL RECORDS ACTS.

37. Two Registers of the Parish of Granard were re-bound in this Office during the year. Several clergymen reported that some of their registers were in need of repair, but owing to the exigencies of the war, materials for re-binding could not be obtained, and the work had to be postponed.

38. A new safe having been provided in the Parish of Antrim, the Registers were permitted to remain in local custody under the existing Order. In the parish of Kilbarron the Vestry Room was re-built, and the old safe re-erected.

39. A further examination of the Vestry Book (1710-1792) belonging to the Parish of Ballyboy, referred to in my last report, shows that the entries of baptisms, marriages and burials are confined to the years 1709-11, and 1747-8.

40. Annual Reports upon the Registers in local custody were received from all the Parishes, with two exceptions, where Records are in such custody under Retention Orders.

STATE PAPER OFFICE.

45. The Government Books and Papers received during the year 1917 include :—

Chief Secretary's Office, Registered Papers of 1907-8,	...	150 boxes.
and Registers and Index Books thereto	...	6 vols.
Convict Papers, 1908	...	14 bundles.
Law Opinions, 1907-8	...	3 boxes.
Sheriffs' Appointment Papers, 1906-7	...	1 box.

46. The Chief Secretary's Office Papers have been checked and put up in cartons: the Registered Papers for 1907 in cartons 4832-94, and those for 1908 in cartons 4910-65; and the Convict Papers in cartons 4895-4909.

47. The "State of the Country" Papers, excluded from the Official Papers, Second Series, have been arranged for the years 1809-15 and put up in eight cartons. The portion of this collection now arranged covers the period 1790-1815.

48. Further progress has been made with the arrangement and calendaring of the Official Papers, Second Series. The papers dealt with in 1917 are contained in cartons 537-60 and extend over the years 1808-16.

49. An addition has been made to the Series of Crown Solicitors' Accounts referred to in paragraph 64 of the Forty-ninth Report: it extends over the years 1842-8 and has been extracted from the "Unregistered Miscellaneous Collection" (pp. 39-40, Nineteenth Report). The payments specified in these accounts fall under the following heads:—Crown Solicitor's salary and office allowance; fees to Law Officers and Crown Counsel, Sessional Crown Solicitors' salaries and expenses; fees to Clerks of the Crown; fees to Clerks of the Peace; Crown Witnesses' expenses; and Miscellaneous.

50. In anticipation of the Unregistered Miscellaneous Papers for 1821 being included in the Official Papers, Second Series, the Index entries for these papers have been amplified.

54. The searches for Government Departments during the year numbered 465.

Application to inspect a certain State Paper was made by Mr. H. S. Guinness.

All which is humbly submitted to Your Excellency as my Report.
